choice that you have got.

PRESIDENT: Senator Duis, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR DUIS: I wish to make a second statement.

PRESIDENT: Senator Cavanaugh has closed debate.

SENATOR DUIS: I didn't understand that that was...

PRESIDENT: The chair announced that. There were no further lights on. Senator Murphy, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR MURPHY: A question of Senator Cavanaugh which I will address to the chair.

PRESIDENT: Thank you.

SENATOR MURPHY: Mr. Chairman, I wonder if Senator Cavanaugh would reply to the question of whether or not he proposed an amendment that would correct this so that it would speak to it inasmuch as he has superior knowledge in these matters of how you phrase these things.

PRESIDENT: The chair will rule that that's in order. Could you respond succinctly, Senator Cavanaugh.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Well, I requested that the Committee hold it and bring the Welfare Department back over to address us more specifically as to what they want and bring their legal counsel and they didn't do it. They wouldn't do it.

PRESIDENT: Senator Mills, for what purpose do you arise, or Dworak? Excuse me.

SENATOR DWORAK: I have a question of Senator Kennedy.

PRESIDENT: Debate has closed. Address the question to the chair, please.

SENATOR DWORAK: The fiscal note that I have on my book, on the front of it, shows...

PRESIDENT: State a question.

SENATOR DWORAK: 239, the fiscal note on 239 on the front page of the fiscal note is quite a bit different than the back page to the fiscal note and on the back page...

PRESIDENT: That's out of order. That's a statement, not a question.

SENATOR DWORAK: I want to know if the back page of the fiscal note is correct for LB 239.

PRESIDENT: The question is out of order.

SENATOR DWORAK: The reverse side of the fiscal note for 239. I think there is an error and I think it is a significant error.
